By The Numbers: How Medicaid Strengthens Georgia

Medicaid is not only a lifeline for millions of Georgians, it strengthens our communities in countless ways. These are reasons why the program is overwhelmingly popular: 74 percent of Americans support Medicaid.

GEORGIANS DEPEND ON MEDICAID

- 1,769,234 Georgians Are Covered Through Medicaid. Over 1,769,234 Georgians have medical coverage through Medicaid - most of them children, seniors, and people with disabilities.
- In Georgia, Parents Up To 36 Percent Of The Federal Poverty Line May Enroll In Medicaid. By not fully expanding Medicaid, Georgia has restricted its Medicaid program such that only Parents earning up to 36 percent of the federal poverty line are eligible to enroll in Medicaid. If Georgia expanded its program, almost 1.4 million more adults could gain coverage through Medicaid.

MEDICAID IS A LIFELINE FOR CHILDREN, SENIORS, AND PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

42 Percent of Georgia's Children Rely on Medicaid. 42 percent of Georgia children rely on Medicaid for coverage. Medicaid pays almost $4 billion annually in school-based health services. Schools depend on these funds connect students with vital health resources — 68 percent of school superintendents said that they used these funds to keep nurses, counselors, and speech therapists on staff.

Medicaid Supports 72 Percent Of Georgians In Nursing Homes. 72 percent of Georgians living in nursing homes have coverage through Medicaid.

Medicaid Covers 23 Percent of Georgia's Seniors and People with Disabilities. In Georgia, 23 percent of seniors and people with disabilities have health coverage through Medicaid, including for nursing home care. Nationally, approximately one in four people on Medicaid are seniors (9 percent) or people with disabilities (15 percent). However, their care represents about two-thirds of all Medicaid spending. In other words, funding cuts to Medicaid will disproportionately affect the most vulnerable.

MEDICAID HELPS GEORGIANS ACCESS TREATMENT FOR OPIOID ADDICTION

Medicaid Covers One In Four Americans With An Opioid Use Disorder. Medicaid pays for 7 percent of Georgia's buprenorphine expenditure, a medication used to treat opioid addiction.

REPUBLICANS' WAR ON THE ACA AND MEDICAID JEOPARDIZES COVERAGE FOR 1.8 MILLION GEORGIANS

1,769,234 Georgians With Traditional Medicaid Coverage, Including Seniors, People With Disabilities, And Children, Are At Risk. The Graham-Cassidy bill that President Trump revived in his FY19 budget proposal would turn traditional Medicaid into a per capita cap, meaning the 1,769,234 Georgians who are enrolled on Medicaid would have their care jeopardized. Medicaid disproportionately helps children, seniors in nursing home care and people with disabilities. A study by Avalere found that Graham-Cassidy would cut funding for people with disabilities by 15 percent and 31 percent for children by 2036.

1,235,122 Georgia Children's Care Is At Risk. 1,235,122 Georgia kids are currently enrolled in Medicaid and CHIP, and their care could be at risk because of funding cuts in Graham-Cassidy.
