

The GOP War On Medicaid Threatens Wisconsinites' Health

President Trump and Republicans in Congress have waged a relentless war on Medicaid. Their war on Medicaid is a war on children, seniors, people with disabilities, rural Americans, those fighting the opioid crisis, our schools, and everyone else who benefits from Medicaid.

Republicans' War On Medicaid Jeopardizes Coverage For More Than A Million Wisconsinites

By Refusing To Expand Medicaid, Wisconsin Is Preventing 82,000 Wisconsinites From Gaining Coverage. By not fully expanding Medicaid, Wisconsin has restricted its Medicaid program such that only Wisconsinites earning up to 100 percent of the federal poverty line are eligible to enroll in Medicaid. If Wisconsin expanded its program, 176,000 more adults could gain coverage through Medicaid.

1,020,034 Wisconsinites With Traditional Medicaid Coverage, Including Seniors, People With Disabilities, And Children, Are At Risk. The Graham-Cassidy bill that President Trump revived in his FY20 budget proposal would turn traditional Medicaid into a per capita cap, meaning the 1,020,034 Wisconsinites who are enrolled on Medicaid would have their care jeopardized. Medicaid disproportionately helps children, seniors in nursing home care and people with disabilities. A study by Avalere found that Graham-Cassidy would cut funding for people with disabilities by 15-percent and 31-percent for children by 2036.

480,642 Wisconsin Children's Care Is At Risk. 480,642 Wisconsin kids are currently enrolled in Medicaid and CHIP, and their care could be at risk because of funding cuts in the Trump budget.

Medicaid Is A Lifeline For Schools, Those Who Need Long-term Care, And Rural Hospitals

Children And Schools Rely On Medicaid, Including 31 Percent of Children in Wisconsin. 31 percent of Wisconsin children rely on Medicaid for coverage. Medicaid pays almost $4 billion annually in school-based health services. Schools depend on these funds connect students with vital health resources — 68 percent of school superintendents said that they used these funds to keep nurses, counselors, and speech therapists on staff.

Medicaid Supports 55 Percent Of Wisconsin Seniors In Nursing Homes. 55 percent of Wisconsin seniors living in nursing homes have coverage through Medicaid.

Medicaid Covers 21 Percent Of Wisconsin's Seniors And People With Disabilities. In Wisconsin, 21 percent of seniors and people with disabilities have health coverage through Medicaid, including nursing home care. Nationally, approximately one in four people on Medicaid are seniors (9 percent) or people with disabilities (15 percent). However, they make up about two-thirds of all Medicaid spending. In other words, funding cuts to Medicaid will disproportionately affect the most vulnerable.

Medicaid Is Especially Important To People In Rural Areas. 18 percent of Wisconsinites living in rural areas are insured through Medicaid. The ACA has expanded access to health care to nearly 1.7 million rural Americans who have gained coverage through the Medicaid expansion, not only playing a central role in improving rural communities' health, but also supporting these communities' economic well-being. The uninsured rate in rural areas in states that expanded Medicaid has dropped by a median of 44 percent since expansion. Medicaid covers nearly 24 percent of rural Americans, 45 percent of rural children, 15 percent of rural seniors, and pays for 51 percent of rural births.

Medicaid Helps Wisconsinites Access Treatment For Opioid Addiction

Medicaid covers one in four Americans with an opioid use disorder and pays for 37 percent of Wisconsin's buprenorphine expenditure, a medication used to treat opioid addiction. A recent study in Health Affairs found that expanding Medicaid could provide services to populations that may have previously had limited access to opioid use disorder treatment.
