Subject: Health Care Top Priority Issue for Nevada Voters

Date: March 21, 2018

On the 8th anniversary of passage of the Affordable Care Act, a new Public Policy Polling survey finds that health care is a top priority issue for Nevada voters when deciding who to vote for in the upcoming election. Health care is ranked as a top issue for 65% of voters (27% saying it is the most important issue and another 38% saying it is very important). Only 14% say it is not that important or not important at all.

Nevada voters disapprove of the Republican efforts to repeal the Affordable Care Act by 7 points (42% to 49%).

- Among independent voters, the disparity is even wider with only 30% supporting the GOP's health care repeal efforts to 58% opposing them.
- 46% of voters believe Republicans are now trying to undermine and sabotage it since they failed to repeal it.
- Only 40% of voters think the best path forward on health care is to repeal the Affordable Care Act, to 55% who think it should be kept in place with fixes made to it as necessary.
- On the issue of health care, voters in Nevada trust the Democratic Party more than they trust the Republican Party 46-42.

Key findings from the survey include:

- In a hypothetical US Senate election matchup, voters prefer Democrat Jacky Rosen over Republican Dean Heller 44-39. Among voters who say that health care is the most important issue, Rosen's lead grows to 61-21 over Heller.
- Senator Dean Heller is not popular among Nevada voters. Only 28% approve of his job performance, while 52% disapprove.

PPP surveyed 720 Nevada voters from March 15-17, 2018. The margin of error is +/- 3.7%. This poll was conducted by automated telephone interviews.
