Subject: Health Care Top Priority Issue for Tennessee Voters

Date: March 21, 2018

On the 8th anniversary of passage of the Affordable Care Act, a new Public Policy Polling survey finds that health care is a top priority issue for Tennessee voters when deciding who to vote for in the upcoming election. Health care is ranked as a top issue for 71% of voters (31% saying it is the most important issue and another 40% saying it is very important). Only 6% say it is not that important or not important at all.

Tennessee voters disapprove of the Republican efforts to repeal the Affordable Care Act by 10 points (47% to 37%).

- Among independent voters, only 35% support the GOP's health care repeal efforts to 41% who oppose them.
- Only 42% of voters think the best path forward on health care is to repeal the Affordable Care Act, to 49% who think it should be kept in place with fixes made to it as necessary.

Key findings from the survey include:

- In a hypothetical US Senate election matchup, voters prefer Democrat Phil Bredesen over Republican Marsha Blackburn 46-41. Among voters who say that health care is the most important issue, Bredesen's lead grows to 56-26 over Blackburn.

PPP surveyed 1,014 Tennessee voters from March 15-16, 2018. The margin of error is +/- 3.1%. This poll was conducted by automated telephone interviews.
