Subject: Indiana Voters Oppose ACA Repeal; Voters Say They Will Blame GOP for Upcoming Rate Increases

Date: May 15, 2018

A new Public Policy Polling survey finds that, by a 34-point margin, Indiana voters oppose repealing the Affordable Care Act and instead want to keep what works and fix what doesn't. A plurality of voters – 49% – say they'll hold Republicans in Washington responsible for health care premium increase announcements this summer and fall – a gaping 29-point margin over those who would not.

Key findings from the survey include:

- By a 61-27 margin, voters say they want to keep what works about the Affordable Care Act and fix what doesn't, rather than repeal it and start over with a new healthcare law – independent voters agree by a 55-24 margin.
- Voters say they will blame Republicans if health care premiums increase this summer. 49% say they will hold Republicans in Washington responsible if rates increase, compared to just 20% who said they would not.
- A plurality of voters (48%) say they believe Washington Republicans and President Trump have been trying to undermine and sabotage the Affordable Care Act – and a plurality of independent voters (44%) also say they agree with that statement.

PPP surveyed 525 registered voters Indiana from May 9-10, 2018. The margin of error is +/- 4.3%. The survey was conducted using an online panel of registered voters for Protect Our Care.
