

By The Numbers: How Medicaid Strengthens Florida

Medicaid is not only a lifeline for millions of Floridians, it strengthens our communities in countless ways. These are reasons why the program is overwhelmingly popular: 74 percent of Americans support Medicaid.

FLORIDIANS DEPEND ON MEDICAID

- 4,297,880 Floridians Are Covered Through Medicaid. Over 4,297,880 Floridians have medical coverage through Medicaid most of them children, seniors, and people with disabilities.
- In Florida, Parents Up To 33 Percent Of The Federal Poverty Line May Enroll In Medicaid. By not fully expanding Medicaid, Florida has restricted its Medicaid program such that only Parents earning up to 33 percent of the federal poverty line are eligible to enroll in Medicaid. If Florida expanded its program, more than 2.3 million more adults could gain coverage through Medicaid.

MEDICAID IS A LIFELINE FOR CHILDREN, SENIORS, AND PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

39 Percent of Florida's Children Rely on Medicaid. 39 percent of Florida children rely on Medicaid for coverage. Medicaid pays almost $4 billion annually in school-based health services. Schools depend on these funds connect students with vital health resources — 68 percent of school superintendents said that they used these funds to keep nurses, counselors, and speech therapists on staff.

Medicaid Supports 57 Percent Of Floridians In Nursing Homes. 57 percent of Floridians living in nursing homes have coverage through Medicaid.

MEDICAID HELPS FLORIDIANS ACCESS TREATMENT FOR OPIOID ADDICTION

Medicaid Covers One In Four Americans With An Opioid Use Disorder. Medicaid pays for 5 percent of Florida's buprenorphine expenditure, a medication used to treat opioid addiction.

REPUBLICANS' WAR ON THE ACA AND MEDICAID JEOPARDIZES COVERAGE FOR 4.3 MILLION FLORIDIANS

4,297,880 Floridians With Traditional Medicaid Coverage, Including Seniors, People With Disabilities, And Children, Are At Risk. The Graham-Cassidy bill that President Trump revived in his FY19 budget proposal would turn traditional Medicaid into a per capita cap, meaning the 4,297,880 Floridians who are enrolled on Medicaid would have their care jeopardized. Medicaid disproportionately helps children, seniors in nursing home care and people with disabilities. A study by Avalere found that Graham-Cassidy would cut funding for people with disabilities by 15 percent and 31 percent for children by 2036.

2,542,630 Florida Children's Care Is At Risk. 2,542,630 Florida kids are currently enrolled in Medicaid and CHIP, and their care could be at risk because of funding cuts in Graham-Cassidy.