By The Numbers: How Medicaid Strengthens South Carolina

Medicaid is not only a lifeline for millions of South Carolinians, it strengthens our communities in countless ways. These are reasons why the program is overwhelmingly popular: 74 percent of Americans support Medicaid.

SOUTH CAROLINIANS DEPEND ON MEDICAID

- 1,009,409 South Carolinians Are Covered Through Medicaid. Over 1,009,409 South Carolinians have medical coverage through Medicaid - most of them children, seniors, and people with disabilities.
- In South Carolina, Parents Up To 67 Percent Of The Federal Poverty Line May Enroll In Medicaid. By not fully expanding Medicaid, South Carolina has restricted its Medicaid program such that only Parents earning up to 67 percent of the federal poverty line are eligible to enroll in Medicaid. If South Carolina expanded its program, 582,000 more adults could gain coverage through Medicaid.

MEDICAID IS A LIFELINE FOR CHILDREN, SENIORS, AND PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

42 Percent of South Carolina's Children Rely on Medicaid. 42 percent of South Carolina children rely on Medicaid for coverage. Medicaid pays almost $4 billion annually in school-based health services. Schools depend on these funds connect students with vital health resources — 68 percent of school superintendents said that they used these funds to keep nurses, counselors, and speech therapists on staff.

Medicaid Supports 60 Percent Of South Carolinians In Nursing Homes. 60 percent of South Carolinians living in nursing homes have coverage through Medicaid.

Medicaid Covers 19 Percent of South Carolina's Seniors and People with Disabilities. In South Carolina, 19 percent of seniors and people with disabilities have health coverage through Medicaid, including for nursing home care. Nationally, approximately one in four people on Medicaid are seniors (9 percent) or people with disabilities (15 percent). However, their care represents about two-thirds of all Medicaid spending. In other words, funding cuts to Medicaid will disproportionately affect the most vulnerable.
