Q6 Now I am going to read you a list of consequences that independent, nonpartisan analysts have identified could result from this court case striking down the Affordable Care Act, and then ask you whether you find that to be a major concern about the Affordable Care Act going away, a minor concern, or not really a concern at all. Here’s the first one: striking down the Affordable Care Act would allow insurance companies to stop covering any of the costs of prescription drugs. Is losing coverage for the costs of prescription drugs a major concern to you about the Affordable Care Act going away, a minor concern, or not really a concern at all?

Major concern 59%
Minor concern 19%
Not really a concern at all 20%
Not sure 2%

Q7 Here's the next one: the court case would eliminate protections that stop insurance companies from dropping or denying coverage for people who have pre-existing medical conditions like cancer, diabetes and asthma. Is this a major concern to you about the Affordable Care Act being struck down, a minor concern, or not really a concern at all?

Major concern 69%
Minor concern 17%
Not really a concern at all..... 12%
Not sure 1%

Q8 Here's the last one: if the lawsuit stands, parents could no longer keep their kids on the family health care plan up to age 26. Is this a major concern to you about the Affordable Care Act going away, a minor concern, or not really a concern at all?

Major concern 46%
Minor concern 26%
Not really a concern at all..... 27%
Not sure 1%

Q9 Which of the following would you most like to see the Congress do about the Affordable Care Act, given the choices of: keeping what works and fixing what doesn't, or repealing it and starting over with a new healthcare law?
